

More Benefits for All!

As a former or current guest of Class VI or Mountain River you will naturally have questions about this merger and how it will affect you. If you have questions that can't be answered here (or on our website), please feel free to contact us.

In a nutshell...you are going to reap the benefits of an ideal partnership of three great adventure companies who demand the highest quality standards, share similar core values, and have a rich legacy of whitewater industry leadership. Best of all, we are committed to transforming from first-class outfitters into a world-class adventure resort destination!

We are committed to showing you a great time while visiting us in southern West Virginia! Here's what you can expect to find at the Class VI basecamp location:
